

This penultimate issue we dedicate to our children, Linda's daughter Erin and Susan's son Henry, and to our husbands—Linda's husband Gary and Susan's husband Michael. They are the vessels of our hearts.

On the evening before our mom died when we were children, after months of being unable to speak, she urgently beckoned us to her, and managed to say her final words: Love! Love! Love!

And so we do.

Susan & Linda

Apple trees on Skyline Boulevard, 1998.